GENERAL INSURANCE AGENCY.

A vivide has an experience of three years in insurance, I can safely promise the insurin public that business intrusted to me will be correctly managed. I am agent for sever first class companies, a list of which I append. Of these, the Andes of Cincinnati, though a young company, has already achieved a marvelous success, having accumulated in eleven months a surplus over ALL liabilities of $160,000. The Agricultural, for insuring farm property and dwellings, stands unrivaled, its stock being worth more in market than that of ANY company in its native state, and exceeded in value by that of but TWO companies in this country. The following is a list of companies represented, with their assets:

Liverpool, London and Globe, Royal of Liverpool, England, 10,000,000 Insurance Co. of N. A., Penna., 3,212,176 Lycoming, of Muncy, Pa., 6,132,000 Andes of Cincinnati, Ohio, -1,773,684 Pennsylvania Ins. To wear or not to wear; THAT's the question !

Whether 'twere better to put upon your feet false soles and treacherous uppers, to rip and tear, admitting wet and air, to your discomfort; with all the ills that flesh is heir to, -or fly for comfort and economy to the "cable wire" shoe, which wears but never tears, and like a faithful friend admits no earthy foe. Let all lovers of a "good understanding" take heed. Springtime has come, demanding a neat walking shoe. Grassy lawns and out-door billiards will necessitate eroquet slippers. FALLS VILLAGE, CONN. Jan. 13th, 1872

FOR SALE. Lultivation and well stocked, belonging to John R. Huriburt, situated 2 miles enst of the Congregational church at South Canaan, and 3 1-2 miles from the Housatonic railroad depot at Falls Village, Conn., consisting of 230 acros; 89 1-2 of which is wood and sprout land, the greater proportion of the sprouts about 25 years old, the remainder well divided into plow, pasture and meadow land, with plenty of orcharding and fruit and a beautiful maple grove which will yield each year an abundance of sap for making sugar; well watered by a splendid trout brook running the entire length of the farm, and beautiful living springs, with buildings well located, consisting of a dwelling house, cheese and wood house; 3 barns, 2 cow houses, shop, milk house, and a never falling spring boiling up from the center of the vat which is large enough to contain 10 milk cans, also a good cistern with chain pump, and a never failing spring of water running near the door. Said farm is noted for being one of the most productive in the township, having for many versas yielded large returns to the cover.
